

News Release

For Immediate Release

November 8, 2004

ATCO BLUE FLAME KITCHEN UNVEILS NEW FESTIVE COOKBOOK

A Holiday Collection offers recipes for every Christmas occasion

EDMONTON, Alberta -- The ATCO Blue Flame Kitchen has unveiled its latest cookbook -- A Holiday Collection – a 152-page collection of delicious recipes each individually developed and tested in Alberta by ATCO professional home economists.

Continuing an annual tradition which has brightened festive celebrations across the province for years, the annual collection sells for only $5, including GST, and offers recipes ranging from Festive Broccoli Salad to Black Forest Cookies.

“These recipes are sure to be a hit with family and friends this holiday season,” said Barbara Barnes, ATCO Blue Flame Kitchen Supervisor. “Through our extensive testing, we have perfected these festive recipes and they are simply delicious.”

This cookbook, which features a special section on Casserole Cuisine, is now available at many ATCO Gas and ATCO Electric offices throughout Alberta, or by calling the toll-free cookbook order line at 1-800-840-3393. Postage and handling fees apply.

For a sampling of recipes from A Holiday Collection, visit the What's Hot section at www.atcoblueflamekitchen.com.

ATCO Blue Flame Kitchen, a unique service offered by ATCO Gas and ATCO Electric, has had professional home economists dishing up household advice and recipes to Albertans for over 70 years. Albertans can call an ATCO Blue Flame Kitchen home economist for advice from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. weekdays at 1-877-420-9090.
